Day 1

Welcome to Kazan - the capital of the Republic of Tatarstan, one of the largest and most beautiful cities of Russia, which is on the list of UNESCO World Heritage cities. During your way to the hotel, you will hear key travel info about the city and your future journey.

Day 2

Let the city introduce itself with its most famous sight – the Kremlin.

Kazan Kremlin is the unique complex of archaeological, historical and architectural monuments that have arisen and have been functioning from the city's founding to the present day.

Visiting Temple of All Religions - the colorful mix of architectural styles culled from most of the major world religions to create an uber-complex where all religions can come together in harmony.

Enjoy lunch with a Tatar cuisine master class in a city restaurant followed by a nice walk among the Bauman Street.

Night Kazan leaves a lasting impression. In these few hours you will see another Kazan, the hushed and relaxed, and all the lights illumination of historical buildings. Panorama of the old city in the night lights and reflection in the river Kazanka will not leave anyone indifferent.

Day 3

Tour to Bolgar city "Northern Mecca"

Bolgar State Historical and Architectural Reserve is the world's northernmost medieval monument of Muslim architecture, the unique and the only model of the Bolgar-Tatar architecture of the mid XIII-XIV centuries. It has no analogues in the world as a valuable historical monument, testifying about the missing states (Volga Bolgar, the Golden Horde).

Lunch in Genghis Khan restaurant

Visiting of the White Mosque (Ak Mechet) – the modern monument of the Muslim architecture.

Visiting of the Museum of bread - an interactive museum of the history of agriculture and bread production on the Tatarstan land from ancient times till 20th century.

Day 4 Thursday

Visit the Staro-Tatarskaya Sloboda (literally “Old-Tatar Sloboda”), that preserves the national atmosphere of the city. “Sloboda” was something like a colonial-type settlement or an ethnic enclave in the Russian Tsardom.
