

Muslim tour to Kazan and Moscow

Destinations:
Kazan - Moscow

Duration:
7 days

Prices from:
650 USD per pax

Price includes:
Accommodation in 4* hotels,
Guide services,
transfers upon the program, entrance fees, HB meal

Price excludes:
Flight tickets, visa services, insurance

Day 1

Welcome to Kazan - the capital of the Republic of Tatarstan, one of the largest and most beautiful cities of Russia, which is on the list of UNESCO World Heritage cities. During your way to the hotel, you will hear key travel info about the city and your future journey.

Day 2

Let the city introduce itself with the most famous sight – the Kremlin.

Kazan Kremlin is the unique complex of archaeological, historical and architectural monuments that have arisen and functioning from the city's founding to the present day.

Visiting Temple of All Religions - the colorful mix of architectural styles culled from most of the major world religions to create an uber-complex where all religions can come together in harmony.

Visiting the Museum of Islamic Culture

The main purpose of the museum is the realization of scientific, educational, research and educational activities, the identification and acquisition of museum objects and collections on the history and culture of Islam and Islamic civilization in the Middle Volga, their study and public presentation.

Day 3

Visit the Staro-Tatarskaya Sloboda (literally "Old-Tatar Sloboda"), that preserves the national atmosphere of the city. "Sloboda" was something like a colonial-type of settlement or an ethnic enclave in the Russian Tsardom.

Later you enjoy lunch with a Tatar cuisine master class in a city restaurant followed by a nice walk among the Bauman Street.

Night Kazan leaves a lasting impression. In these few hours you will see another Kazan, the hushed and relaxed, and all the light illumination of historical buildings. Panorama of the old city in the night lights and reflection in the river Kazanka will not leave anyone indifferent.

Day 4

Tour to Bolgar city “the Mecca of the North”

Bolgar State Historical and Architectural Reserve is the world's northernmost medieval monument of Muslim architecture, the unique and the only model of the Bolgar-Tatar architecture of the mid XIII-XIV centuries. It has no analogues in the world as a valuable historical monument, testifying about the missing states (Volga Bolgar, the Golden Horde).

Visiting of the White Mosque (Ak Mechet) – the modern monument of the Muslim architecture

Visiting of the Museum of bread - an interactive museum of the history of agriculture and bread production on the Tatarstan land from ancient times till 20th century.

Day 5

Transfer to Kazan Airport

Flight to Moscow

Transfer to Hotel in Moscow

Free time

Moscow Night tour

In the evening, when the sun goes down we invite you to explore the beauty of night illumination of the city that never sleeps and enjoy the beauty of the famous metro stations.

Day 6

Our Moscow tour will start on Bolshaya Ordynka street, where in XIII century the road to the Golden Orda capital started. We will discover the Zamoskvorechie quartier, visit the oldest Mosque in Moscow. Of course, we won't miss the famous Kremlin and its cathedrals.

The tour ends up by Moscow Cathedral Mosque – the biggest Mosque in Russia and Europe.

Day 7

Enjoy some shopping before your transfer to the airport.